Hamilton, John

- II. The minutes of the winter term faculty meeting on February 1, the special faculty meeting of March 13, and the special faculty meeting of March 20, were approved as distributed.
- III. Dr. Levis announced preliminary plans were being made for the installation of our new president, perhaps at the Convocation next fall. He suggested that comments should be offered to the new faculty officers.
- IV. Dr. Hicks said he hoped everyone would attend both commencements. There will be a faculty party at Wind Song after commencement on Sunday, sponsored by Hugh McKean and John Tiedtke.
- V. Dr. Ling expressed his thanks to the faculty for their teaching and working with the students. He expressed his appreciation to the faculty officers and the chairpersons of the various committees.
- VI. Mr. Wolfe moved that the degree candidates be recommended to the Board of Trustees for their respective degrees, subject to satisfactory completion of courses in progress. The motion was passed.
- VII. Mr. Wolfe moved that the students who have a sufficiently high grade point average, as specified in the College Catalog, and who have the endorsement of their major departments, be awarded the appropriate honors at graduation. The motion was passed.

- I. Dr. Hicks moved the adoption of the resolution on a Communications major (agenda item 3.c.):

BE IT RESOLVED, That the establishment of a Communications major be postponed until the College has clarified its sense of mission and educational purpose through appropriate evaluation by the Educational Policy Committee, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the establishment of the Communications major be considered by the faculty at the earliest possible date during the 1978-79 academic year in light of the Educational Policy Committee study.

The motion carried.

- IX. Dr. Levis moved the adoption of proposed Bylaws changes (agenda item 3.D.):

Article III, Section 5 B. delete "If the President . . . legislation." and insert, "If the President of the College imposes a veto on legislation passed by the Senate, he/she shall do so in writing to the President of the Faculty. The President of the Faculty shall then call a special meeting of the faculty as provided for in Section 6. Prior to action by the faculty, the legislation shall be suspended."

Article III, Section 6. add, "E. Should the faculty by majority vote override the veto of Senate legislation, the final determination shall be made by the Board of Trustees as described in subsections C and D."

After debate the question was called and passed. The change was adopted on a hand vote 47 to 13.

- X. Dr. Levis moved the adoption of proposed Bylaws changes (memo dated April 27, 1978):

Article XII. delete "provided, however, that . . . Trustees."

Article XII. add new sentence. "It shall be the responsibility of the President of the Faculty to communicate all revisions of these Bylaws to the Board of Trustees."

The motion was passed without dissent.

- XI. During the time that the business described in Sections VIII, IX, and X was conducted, elections were held with the following results:
